

NEWSLETTER CHESS 2012

MONDAY, 20
AUGUST 2012

Welcome to Guima- rães!

At the open ceremony the president of the Organizing Committee remembered the previous organizations of the University of Minho and the Student's Union, hoping that this could be a success as well.

About a hundred college students from eighteen different countries came to Portugal to dispute the championship that last to place in Zurich, Switzerland in 2010.

Yesterday morning occurred the technical meeting. Eugen Fleisher, FISU Technical Committee responsible, reminded to all the participants the rules of the game. The member of the Medical Committee present, Kadirhan Sunguroglu, warned that anti doping tests will be done during the week. Three athletes, one Chinese, one Polish and another from Russian Federation were invited to integrate the Technical Committee. Until the 26th August, Guimarães will be the world capital of chess. It's time to move...
