CHESS 2012

Guimarães Portugal

12th World University
Championship

Half way there

Carlos Dias is surprised by the quality of the competition "in one hand the competitive level is very high, in the other hand the organization gives excellent conditions to the participants".

Yesterday, the last double rounds took place. In the next few days we'll assist only one round each afternoon. The games will be held at 4pm, except for Saturday when it will be at 2pm.

At the end of the 5th round, with half of the competition passed, Bu Xiangzhi from China and Papin Vasily from Russia, with 4 points each are under the spotlight in men's competition. But seven players are in their tale just half point away. In women's competition Zhang Xiaowen takes the lead with 3,5points. Concerning to the ranking, three countries stand out from the others. China, in first place with 12 points, Russia in second with 11,5 and Poland in third with 10,5.
