CHESS 2012

Guimarães Portugal

12th World University
Championship

The leaders speaks Chinese

At the end of the day, China is leading the competition, close followed by Polish and Russian delegations. Bu Xiangzhi is leading the male's competition while in female's Tan Zhongyi has the advantaged.

In a chess game, is frequent that the game ends up tied. At this World University Championship, draws are coming to fall, despite the seven that happened in today's sixth round, at UMinho Sports Hall.

Panoramic restaurant, at University of Minho Gualtar campus in Braga, was the chosen place to host an official dinner that brought together participants of World University Championship of Chess and Futsal. Besides the speeches of the President of the Organizing Committee, Luís Rodrigues, and the Rector of University of Minho, António Cunha, a few gratefulness awards were given to the teams and to the guests that helped with the organization of both WUC.
