CHESS 2012

Guimarães Portugal

12th World University
Championship

A competi- tive day

With the competition almost over, Paulo Oliveira, chief of the Portuguese entourage, said that he's "satisfied by the Portuguese performance". "They're doing the best they can and this is a very important competition for their development", said. Portuguese chief told that "there were surprising victories, including against some better ranked opponents". "The main goal is to avoid last places", finalized.

In men's tournament, the chinese player, Bu Xiangzhi won again and is still leading the competition. He is going to dispute the title today with the polish player Bultski Krysztof. This one also had a victory yesterday and despite his lower classification, can still reach the title. In the female's competition, Alina Kashlinskaya had an even game with the german Hoolt Sarah and is leading the classification, due to the fact that chinese player Tan Zhongyi also tied in her last game. The competition ends tomorrow.
